

Symposium Breakout Session Proposal

Submission deadline is November 1

Preference will be given to proposals with direct application to the work of Thinking Collaborative.

SYMPOSIUM OUTCOMES

Participants will have:

- increased Efficacy around the work of Thinking Collaborative and Habits of Mind;
- greater Interdependence between and within our communities (Adaptive Schools, Cognitive CoachingSM, Habits of Mind);
- higher Craftsmanship with coaching, thinking, and collaborating skills;
- enhanced Consciousness about ways in which Adaptive Schools, Cognitive CoachingSM and Habits of Mind can be applied in different settings;
- extended Flexibility with current trends and issues in education.

TIMELINE

- Proposal submission deadline—November 1
- Presenters notified of proposal acceptance—November 15

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- All presenters must register for the Symposium and cover their own registration fees, travel, and lodging expenses.
- Each breakout room will be furnished with an LCD projector and a flip chart.
- Presenters will need to bring their own laptop and speakers if they require sound.
- Presenters will need to request an Internet connection by December 1, if required for their breakout.
- Presenters will need to provide their own handouts.

APPLICATION COMPONENTS

- Breakout Title:
- Intended Audience:
- Breakout Outcomes: Participants will have...
- Breakout Description: In 100 words or less, describe the content of your breakout session.
- Breakout Information: Please address the following questions.
 - To which Symposium outcome(s) does your session apply?
 - How might participants be able to apply what they learn in your session to their own organizations?
 - How does your session connect and integrate the work of Thinking Collaborative and Habits of Mind to current trends in education?

QUESTIONS?

Contact Carol Brooks Simoneau at carolsimoneau@gmail.com